

FIG. 6.—Horizontal section of the St. Louis, Mo., tornado of May 27, 1896, showing the distribution of pressure and the wind vectors.

W. B.—locus of the U. S. Weather Bureau station with reference to the vortex.

Scales: Linear, 1 division = 40 meters.
Time, 1 division = 0.7 minute.